LETTER OF APPOINTMENT

Date: 1 July 2026

To,
Mr. Gurbaaz Singh

Subject: Appointment as Chief Technology Officer (CTO)

Dear Mr. Gurbaaz Singh,

We are pleased to offer you the position of Chief Technology Officer (CTO) at Neecon Consultants Private Limited, effective from 6 July 2026. We are delighted to welcome you to the leadership team and look forward to your contribution in shaping the Company's technological vision and innovation ecosystem.

Your appointment is based on the confidence we have in your technical expertise, leadership abilities, and commitment to building impactful technology-driven solutions. As Chief Technology Officer, you will play a pivotal role in driving the Company's flagship technology initiatives and establishing a strong foundation for future innovation.

1. Employment Details

- Designation: Chief Technology Officer (CTO)
- Date of Appointment: 1 July 2026
- Date of Joining: 6 July 2026
- Employment Type: Full-Time
- Work Mode: Hybrid
- Reporting To: Directors – Mr. Yagyesh and Mr. Divyansh
- Probation Period: Not Applicable
- Compensation: This appointment is initially on an unpaid basis. Any future remuneration, honorarium, equity participation, incentives, or compensation structure shall be determined mutually based on the Company's growth, project milestones, financial position, and strategic requirements.

2. Key Responsibilities

As Chief Technology Officer, you shall provide strategic technological leadership across the Company's products, research initiatives, and digital infrastructure. Your primary responsibilities shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

A. Decentralized Energy Platform

You shall lead the conceptualization, architecture, development, and deployment of One Joule, a next-generation decentralized energy platform aimed at transforming the energy ecosystem through blockchain-enabled infrastructure. Your responsibilities shall include:

- Designing and developing a secure, scalable, and user-centric technology platform.
- Building systems enabling decentralized energy generation, battery storage, and peer-to-peer energy trading.
- Integrating technologies relating to solar energy systems, battery storage, and microgrids.
- Developing blockchain-enabled mechanisms for transparent transactions, dynamic pricing, and decentralized energy settlement.
- Creating technology solutions that promote energy independence, resilience, and sustainable community-led power networks.
- Continuously improving the platform's security, scalability, interoperability, and user experience.

B. Decentralized Cloud Computing Platform

You shall lead the development of a decentralized cloud computing ecosystem that leverages distributed computing resources to create an efficient, affordable, and resilient cloud infrastructure. Your responsibilities shall include:

- Designing a decentralized marketplace connecting computing resource providers with users.
- Developing cloud infrastructure utilizing idle computational capacity across distributed nodes.
- Building secure workload scheduling, monitoring, billing, and payment mechanisms.
- Integrating blockchain technologies to ensure transparency, decentralization, and trust.
- Developing enterprise-grade cloud services that offer cost-effective alternatives to centralized cloud providers.
- Ensuring the platform maintains high availability, security, and scalability.

3. Technology Leadership

In addition to the flagship projects, you shall:

- Define and implement the Company's long-term technology strategy.
- Lead software architecture, engineering standards, and product development.
- Build, mentor, and manage high-performing technology teams.
- Drive research and innovation across emerging technologies.
- Oversee artificial intelligence integration wherever strategically beneficial.
- Develop cybersecurity policies and implement best practices for information security.
- Establish DevOps practices, software quality standards, documentation frameworks, and engineering workflows.
- Evaluate emerging technologies and recommend their adoption in alignment with the Company's vision.
- Collaborate closely with the Directors on technology strategy, product development, business expansion, fundraising, and strategic partnerships.

4. Team Development and Intern Engagement

As Chief Technology Officer, you shall have the authority to identify, recruit, appoint, and mentor unpaid interns in the areas of software development, blockchain, cloud computing, artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, research, and related technology domains.

Such appointments shall be made to strengthen the Company's technical capabilities and promote innovation. All internship engagements shall be documented appropriately, supervised professionally, and periodically reported to the Directors. The appointment of unpaid interns shall not create any financial liability upon the Company unless expressly approved in writing by the Directors.

5. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property

During your association with the Company, you may have access to confidential information, proprietary technologies, software source code, research materials, business strategies, client information, and intellectual property.

You agree to maintain strict confidentiality regarding all such information during and after your employment. All software, source code, inventions, algorithms, documentation, designs, research outputs, databases, products, and intellectual property developed by you, individually or collaboratively, in connection with your duties shall remain the exclusive property of Necop Consultants Private Limited unless otherwise agreed in writing.

6. Professional Conduct

You shall perform your duties with integrity, professionalism, diligence, and accountability while acting in the best interests of the Company. You shall comply with all applicable Company policies, ethical standards, statutory requirements, and lawful directions issued by the Directors.

7. Amendment of Terms

The Company reserves the right to modify your responsibilities, reporting structure, or terms of engagement in accordance with business requirements, subject to appropriate communication and mutual understanding wherever applicable.

8. Conflict of Interest

During the tenure of your appointment, you shall devote your professional expertise and best efforts towards the growth and development of Necop Consultants Private Limited. You shall promptly disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest that may affect your ability to perform your duties impartially.

You shall not engage in any activity, employment, consultancy, or business venture that directly competes with the Company's core business or adversely affects the interests of the Company without the prior written approval of the Directors.

9. Technology Assets and Intellectual Property Ownership

All software applications, source code, repositories, APIs, databases, cloud infrastructure, smart contracts, blockchain protocols, algorithms, technical documentation, product roadmaps, UI/UX designs, domains, hosting accounts, digital assets, AI models, datasets, and any other technology assets created, developed, or managed during your association with the Company shall remain the sole and exclusive property of Necop Consultants Private Limited.

Wherever applicable, administrative ownership of repositories, cloud platforms, domains, hosting services, and third-party software accounts shall be maintained under Company-controlled credentials or shared with the Directors to ensure business continuity. Upon cessation of your appointment, all Company-owned digital assets, credentials, documentation, and confidential materials shall be handed over immediately to the Company.

10. Authority and Financial Approval

As Chief Technology Officer, you shall have operational authority over technology planning, software development, technical architecture, technology recruitment, and project execution.

However, the following shall require prior written approval from the Directors:

Appointment of paid employees or consultants.

Procurement of software licenses, hardware, cloud infrastructure, or technology services involving financial expenditure.

Execution of technology partnerships, vendor agreements, or commercial contracts on behalf of the Company.

Any financial commitment or obligation binding upon the Company.

11. Resignation and Termination

Either party may terminate this appointment by providing thirty (30) days' written notice, unless both parties mutually agree otherwise.

The Company reserves the right to terminate this appointment with immediate effect in cases involving gross misconduct, fraud, breach of confidentiality, misuse of Company resources, violation of applicable laws, or conduct prejudicial to the interests or reputation of the Company.

Upon termination, you shall promptly return all Company property, documents, hardware, software, credentials, digital assets, and confidential information.

12. Confidentiality After Separation

The obligations relating to confidentiality, intellectual property, data protection, and proprietary information shall survive the termination of your appointment and shall continue to remain binding without limitation in respect of confidential information acquired during your association with the Company.

13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Letter of Appointment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India.

Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this appointment shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts situated in Delhi, India.
